

Filmlab: Palestine

Volunteering with Filmlab: Palestine Volunteer with Filmlab: Palestine and take part in their work with storytelling and filmmaking.

- Exchange your knowledge and expertise within the field of filmmaking with Palestinian professionals.
- Be part of the organisation's work with supporting and creating a productive and dynamic film industry in Palestine.
- Volunteer and share your professionalism within a meaningful setting and take part in the artistic and cinemactical exchange between Denmark and Palestine.

Filmlab: Palestine was inspired by the personal experience of its founders in empowering Palestinian youth in refugee camps in Jordan through film literacy and talent program, strengthening their own personal narratives. Build on this expertise, Filmlab: Palestine aims at expanding and cultivating the existing cinema culture within Palestine, while providing the much-needed technical and artistic support for emerging Palestinian filmmaking voices. Following the slogan "It's time to tell our stories", Filmlab: Palestine is eager to promote one of the most effective audio-visual tools for self-expression, storytelling, the preservation of collective memory, while putting Palestine on the map of the global cinema industry.

Located in Ramallah, Palestine.
