

Atabet Fann for Arts, Media and Training

Volunteering with Atabet Fann for Arts, Media and Training

Volunteer with Atabet Fann for Arts, Media and Training and contribute to their important work of empowering individual artists, through working with skill development in the arts sector. You will:

- Exchange your knowledge and expertise within the field of youth empowerment in an art context.
- Practice and develop your skills in a very different political and cultural context than that of Denmark.
- Expand your network to the Palestinian advocacy scene and become part of a dynamic and inspiring team.
- Volunteer and share your experience within a meaningful setting and take part in the cultural exchange between Palestine and Denmark.

Current volunteer positions available:

Organisational and administrative volunteer

- Preferably student or graduate in business and administration or a related field
- Preferable experience with administrative tasks
- Detail-oriented
- Preferably able to volunteer for two to three months
- No age limit

Designer

- Preferably student or graduate in communication, publication, design or a related field
- Detail-oriented with a creative eye for design of websites, workshops and content creation
- Preferably able to volunteer for two to three months
- No age limit

Fundraiser

- Preferably student or graduate within social sciences or humanities
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills as well as interpersonal skills
- Preferably experience with fundraising and project design
- Preferably experience with project management
- Preferably able to volunteer for two to three months
- No age limit